

SPECIAL MATINEE RE-SCREENING OF CIUDAD EN ROJO

4 pm, Sunday, March 30
St. Anthony Main Theatre
115 SE Main Street
Minneapolis

$5 admission for all

Eso Que Anda (“Van Van Fever”), tonight's feature, is a documentary directed by Ian Padrón about Los Van Van, one of Cuba's most popular bands. The film follows them during their most recent tour in Cuba attended by more than one million people, and looks at the band's history and future plans.

Join the party after the film at Pracna on Main. Live music with Cubanía, featuring Viviana Pintado, Shai Hayo and Gloria “la Niña” Rivera. Free admission.

UPCOMING EVENTS

Wednesday, March 26 – April 19: La Raza Student Cultural Center, Coffman Union, University of MN, East Bank, continuing exhibit of “I will die the way I lived,” prison paintings by Antonio Guerrero, one of the Cuban Five.

Monday, April 14 – Thursday, April 17: Arnold August, author of the new book, Democracy in Motion, Cuba and its Neighbours. See www.minnesotacubacommittee.org for details.

June 4 – 11: 5 Days for the Cuban 5, Washington, DC

Mid-July: Pastors for Peace caravan to Cuba, Twin Cities dates to be announced

July 26: Afro-Cuban Gala, cosponsored with Obsidian Arts

October 7 – 11: Cuban filmmaker Gloria Rolando tour with Reembarque, her new film about Haiti and Cuba and screening of Chapter 3 of 1912, Breaking the Silence.

October 27 – 31: III World Meeting of Solidarity with Cuba, Havana, Cuba

Minnesota Cuba Committee, www.minnesotacubacommittee.org | mncuba@gmail.com | 612-367-6134